

HealthAchieve

What Leaders Need to Know About Health
Information Management (HIM®)

Mobilizing Information Management in Ontario

Eric Sutherland

Director (A), Information Management Strategy & Policy

Ministry of Health and Long-Term Care

The Information Value Chain

“Data is “oxygen” and the successful organizations will be those that have the best data and know how to use it to create the best outcomes”

Richard Hodach, Provider-Led Population Health Management

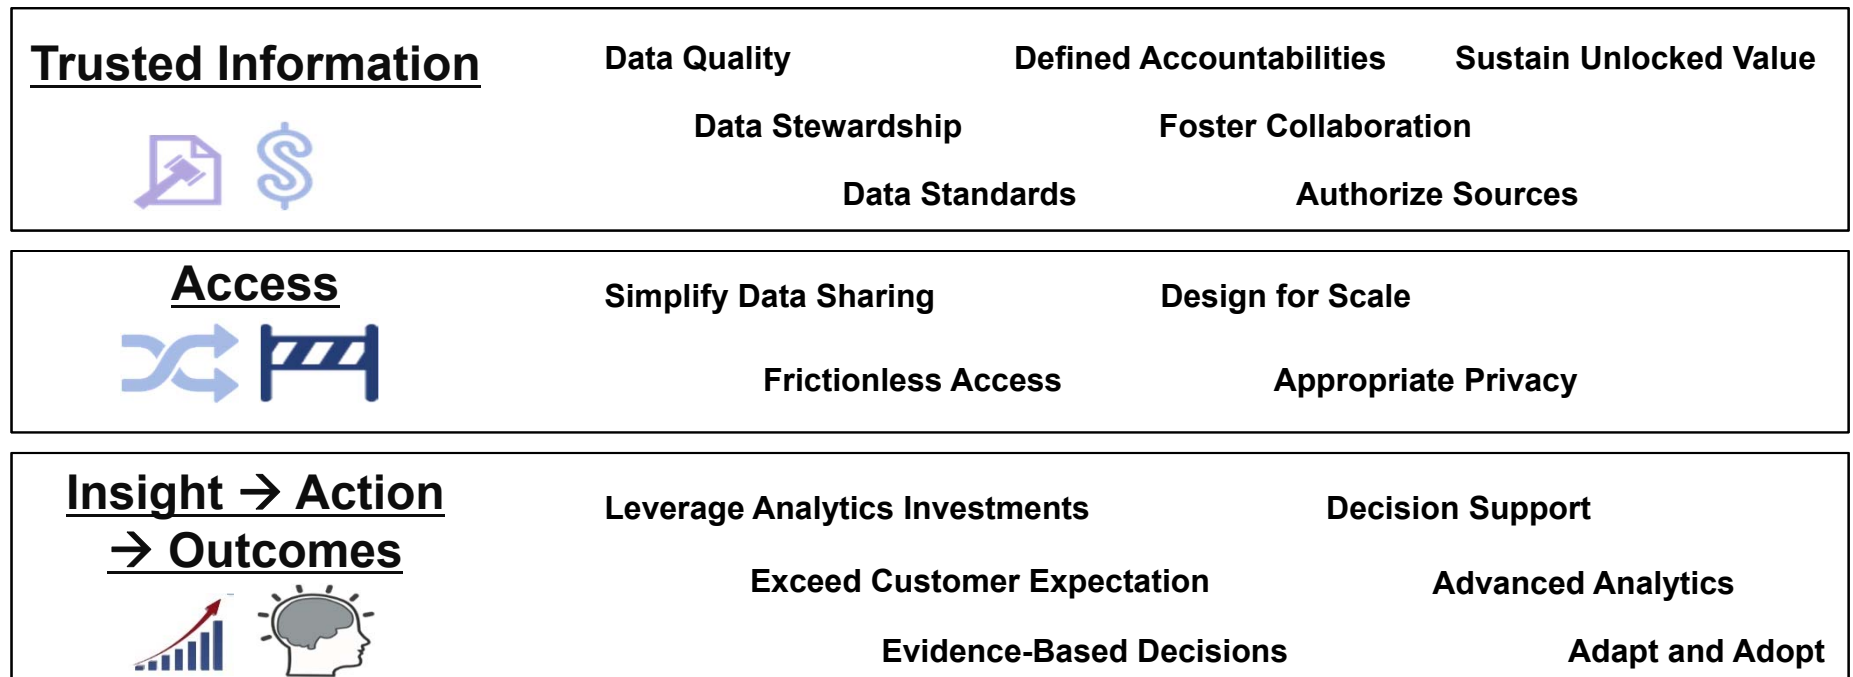

Trusted Information  Access  Insight → Action → Outcomes

HealthAchieve

Our Opportunity: Design and Sustain Trust in Data and Analytics

Engaged 150+ leaders from across the spectrum of health care participants

The response was clear: The key to a World Class health care system is in our data

HealthAchieve

DRAFT FOR DISCUSSION - NOT FOR DISTRIBUTION

Analytics for Patients, Population Health, Planning, and Innovation: Unlocking Value in Lab Data

Lab Data: Future Opportunities

Small changes in information flow, can realize tremendous opportunities for patients, providers, and the whole system.

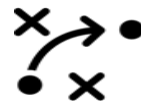

HealthAchieve

“I see my results are getting better – I’ll continue my new healthy habits!”

“I know all of my patients that may have diabetes are on the right treatments”

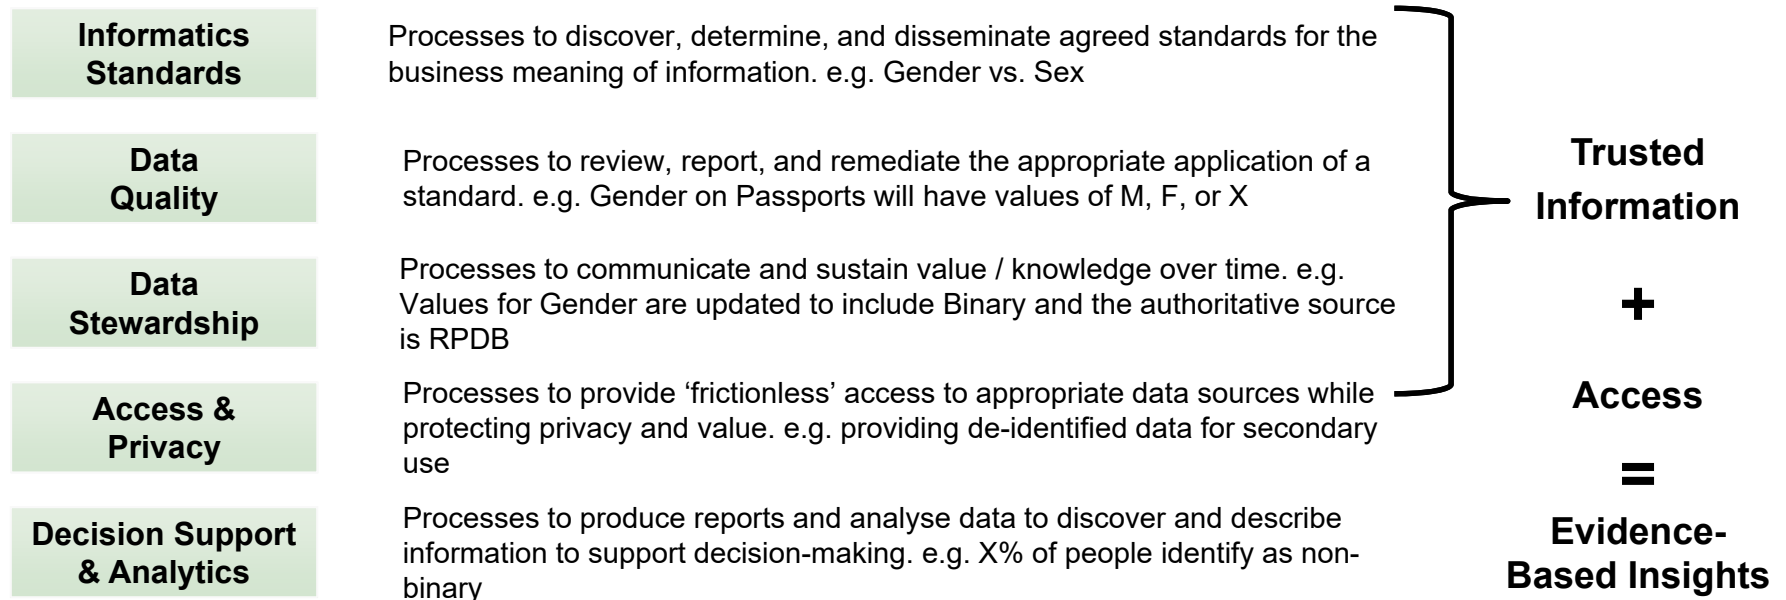

“I saved up to 30% of lab testing costs by eliminating redundant tests” - Abbott

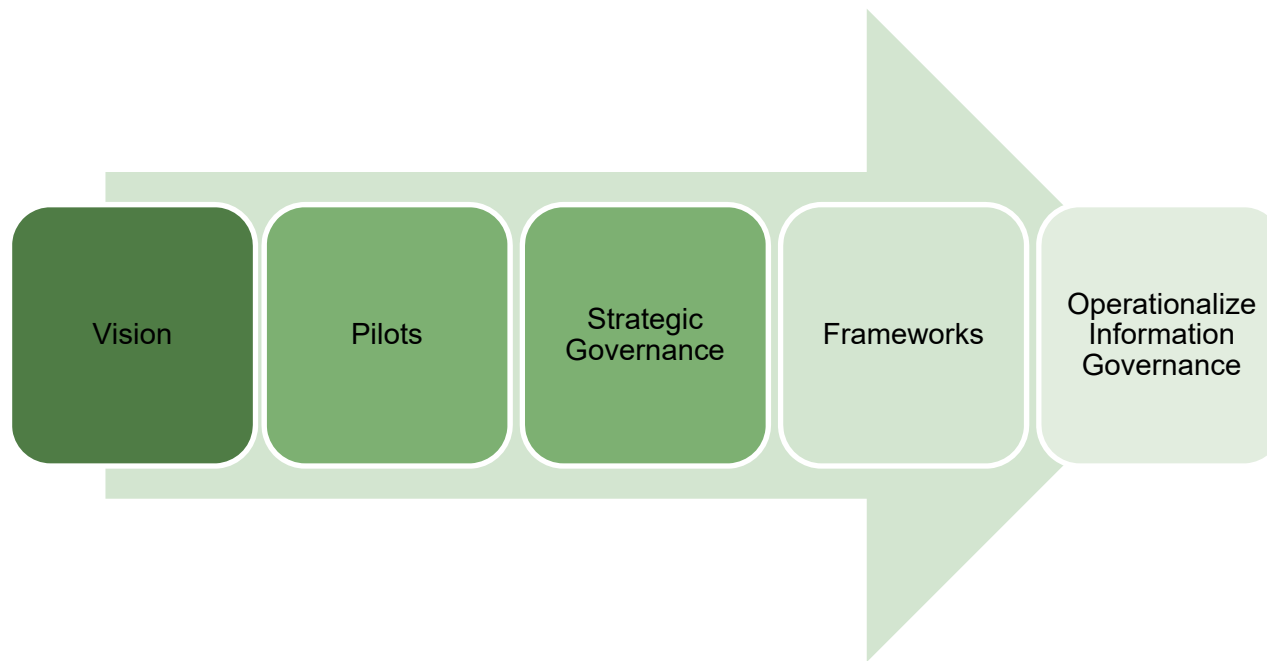

“We have more insights, results, and engaged employees!”

The Disciplines of Information Management supports evidence based- decisions, driving action, and enabling outcomes

Our Opportunity: Design and Sustain Trust in Data and Analytics

Shifting to Action

Experienced Information Management Professionals will be essential in this journey

HealthAchieve